CLARIFICATION NOTE
OF ART. 2.1 OF THE ANICA CCP VIDEO REGULATION

Reference is made to art. 2.1 “Identification of entitled parties” of the ANICA CCP Video Regulation, according to which:

“For audiovisual works of Italian nationality, the CCP is paid in favor of the original producer or his/her assignees as resulting from relevant contractual agreements. The assignees are in any case identified as the definitive transferees of the right to the CCP, or in the definitive transferees of all the dominical¹ and economic exploitation rights of the audiovisual work.”

it is clarified that the assignees of the original producer are also identified as the transferees of the right to the CCP who, on the basis of a specific contractual agreement with a certain date, are holders of the CCP for a limited but equally certain period of time.
